PROFILE

My professional approach is focused on development, education, and advocacy for individuals. I empower individuals to be creative problem-solvers, effective self-advocates, and life-long learners. I bring 15 years of higher education experience working with individuals at all ages and stages to define their educational journeys and find success in their learning experiences. I facilitate learning and development for my team as well as other professionals and faculty.

KEY STRENGTHS

Decision Making – Quickly see and weigh alternative paths; anticipate and evaluate best path forward. Thorough and deliberative thought process empowers credible and well-informed decisions based on data and assessment.

Accountability – Strong inner drive creates an innate source of intensity, energy, and power that motivates me to work hard to get things done. Ability to complete projects according to broad guidelines.

Relationships – Naturally form genuine and mutually rewarding one-on-one relationships that foster trust and confidence. Collaborative, personable, and empathetic team building and support.
